

IAC Acoustics, A Division of Sound Seal, Appoints Dan O'Brien Sales Director

NORTH AURORA, IL – March 29th, 2016 – IAC Acoustics, a division of Sound Seal, and a leading manufacturer of metal acoustical and noise control products and solutions serving the industrial, architectural, commercial and construction industries, is excited to announce the advancement of Dan O'Brien to Sales Director. In his new role, Dan will oversee IAC regional and product sales managers to service and support our valued rep network partners.

Dan brings over 25 years of acoustical sales and engineering experience to the IAC team. In his previous role with Sound Seal, he was Business Development Manager for Industrial products and systems where he was directly involved with Sound Seal distributors and the acoustic community to bring custom solutions to the noise control market.

“Dan brings over two decades of experience to the IAC team.” said Mark Rubino, President of IAC Acoustics. Due to his versatile background in acoustics and his extensive experience in supporting a network of technical sales professionals, we are confident that Dan will bring great value to both our sales team and our rep partners. We are excited to have him on board.”
